The Middleburg Hunt Point-To-Point

SUNDAY, APRIL 28, 2019

POST TIME 1:00 P.M.

GLENWOOD PARK, MIDDLEBURG, VIRGINIA

The Middleburg Hunt hopes that you will join us for a day in the country to enjoy the exciting sport of steeplechase racing at one of the most beautiful race courses in the nation. Glenwood Park is known for offering spectators a spectacular view of the racing action. This year's race card once again includes racing over the timber course, the hurdle course and on the flat.

Reservation Form

Patron Parking

$200 per car pass that admits car and four (4) occupants

For each patron a select parking space will be reserved near the stretch and the judges stand and will be identified with a sign in the patron's name. These parking spaces, in the shadow of the Grandstand, not only have a wonderful view of the race course but are a great spot for tailgate picnicking.

Subscriber Parking

$100 per car pass that admits car and four (4) occupants

The subscriber parking is on the south side of the race course very close to the final fence of the timber course and the beginning of the stretch, ideal for tailgate picnicking.

General Admission

If paid prior to April 15, General Admission car pass is $30. Admits car and four (4) occupants. Additional occupants $15 each.

If paid after April 15, General Admission car pass is $40. Admits car and four (4) occupants. Additional occupants $15 each.

Directions to Glenwood

Middleburg, Virginia, is fifty (50) miles west of Washington on Route 50. From the center of Middleburg (at the only traffic light) turn north on Route 626 at the Red Fox Inn. The entrance to Glenwood Park is one (1) mile on the right.

In order to guarantee receipt of parking spaces held in past years, previous patrons should respond by April 1st. First time patrons are encouraged to respond promptly, since parking spaces are assigned in the order that payment is received.
